Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for one's fellow man or woman; and,

Whereas, Doris Harms has been a dedicated and outstanding employee of the First American Bank and Trust at Fairview and Canton, South Dakota; and,

Whereas, On June 30, 2005, after 30 years of service to First American Bank and Trust, Doris is retiring; and,

Whereas, Doris will be greatly missed because of her loyal customer service and kind and caring personality; and,

Whereas, Doris has devoted her life to the betterment of her community, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 30, 2005, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends, and co-workers in commending her for a job well done.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventeenth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
